

Forecast & Packaging Manager

Location: Attleborough, Norfolk

Type: Full-time

Salary: £30 - £40k (DOE)

Reporting to: Head of Business

Are you a data-driven strategist with a passion for operational efficiency? We are looking for a Forecast & Packaging Manager to lead our demand planning & inventory supply strategy. You will be the linchpin between sales trends and production reality, ensuring our supply chain is agile & managed for optimum efficiency.

This is a pivotal role in a fast-paced environment where your analytical improvements directly impact our success.

From key customer liaison to overseeing plastic recovery and packaging procurement, this role offers a diverse challenge for someone who loves both technical analysis and hands-on operational support.

Key Responsibilities

- Forecasting Excellence: Fulfil farm and sales forecasting; analyse historical data and sales trends to predict demand with precision.
- Packaging & Inventory: Manage packaging forecasts and purchasing to eliminate stockouts while minimising overstock; maintain meticulous records of plastic use and recovery.
- Operational Synergy: Work closely with the Production Planning Manager (providing cover as needed) and collaborate with production teams to integrate forecasts into daily schedules.
- Account Management Support: Maintain customer feed forecasts and handle ITI analysis and weekly/monthly data production.
- Flexible Leadership: Provide rotating Saturday production cover alongside the Shift Supervisor and escalate demand risks proactively.

Skills & qualifications

- Expertise: A degree in Supply Chain Management, Business, or Statistics (or equivalent proven experience in demand planning).
- Data Fluency: Exceptional IT skills and the ability to interpret complex data to identify actionable trends.
- Soft Skills: You are a credible self-starter who can "hold the line" when necessary while inspiring colleagues through positive encouragement.

- Proactive Mindset: An energetic, methodical approach to removing "pain points" for internal and external customers.
- Flexibility: A willingness to travel as necessary and a "go the extra mile" attitude.
